Join our techdriven events as we unite internal and external teams, share mooncakes, and highlight key achievements. Experience the perfect blend of culture and innovation at WATA TECH s festive gathering. The Brand Name Gets a Tech Icon for WATA TECH Events MidAutumn At WATA TECH, we believe in celebrating not just our business successes but also the cultural festivities that bring our teams closer together. One such event is the MidAutumn Festival , which holds special significance for us. This year, our event will be more than just a traditional celebration it will be an embodiment of our brand s technological innovation and team spirit. By combining the festive atmosphere with our techdriven culture, WATA TECH continues to strengthen its identity as a leading force in the tech world. Night Meetings with All Teams: Internal and External The MidAutumn event at WATA TECH is designed to bring together every member of our organization, from the internal teams that power our daytoday operations to the external teams that collaborate with us. It s an opportunity to celebrate the efforts of everyone involved in making WATA TECH a success. The event fosters collaboration and ensures that our tech community stays connected. WATA TECH MIDAUTUMN New InHouse Tech Teams Join the MidAutumn Celebration This year, we re excited to welcome our newly formed inhouse tech teams . Their participation in the MidAutumn celebration is a way to introduce them to the WATA TECH family, while also giving them a chance to experience the lively culture and camaraderie that we are proud to cultivate. The event promises to be a night to remember, with the theme Nightmare adding a unique twist to the festivities. General Events for the Third Quarter and Achievement Reports As part of our MidAutumn celebration , WATA TECH will also take the opportunity to highlight key achievements from the third quarter of the year. This is a time to reflect on our collective progress, acknowledge the hard work put in by our teams, and gear up for the final quarter with renewed energy and focus. Building Future Connections at WATA TECH The MidAutumn celebration goes beyond a simple gathering it s a chance to strengthen bonds within WATA TECH. As we look towards future growth, this party allows our staff, across all levels, to connect and collaborate more deeply. The relationships built during these events will lay the foundation for future success, fostering a sense of belonging and teamwork that is crucial for the continued development of WATA TECH. Creating a Happy Environment for All Departments During the Festival The MidAutumn Festival at WATA TECH is about more than just mooncakes and lanterns it s about creating a joyful environment for all our staff. This festival serves as a reminder of the importance of worklife balance and appreciation for our teams hard work. Every department, from marketing to development, comes together to enjoy the festivities, strengthening the unity that drives our success. WATA TECH MIDAUTUMN Sharing Happiness Through Mooncakes One of the highlights of the MidAutumn celebration is the cutting and sharing of mooncakes. It s a symbolic gesture that represents unity, togetherness, and shared joy. As our team members enjoy the treats, they also take the time to reflect on the past months and look forward to the future with excitement and optimism. MidAutumn: An Opportunity for Internal and OffShore Team Connection MidAutumn offers a unique opportunity to connect our internal and offshore teams. It s not just a local celebration, but a global one, bringing together WATA TECH employees from around the world. The festival helps reinforce our company's values of inclusivity, collaboration, and cultural respect, while allowing teams to bond over shared experiences and traditions.
